Announcing the 2022-2023 Season Line-up

The Bitterroot Performing Arts Council is honored and excited to present our 18th performance season to an eager and enthusiastic audience! Music education continues to be at the forefront of our mission, and our slate of world-class visiting artists look forward to being on our stages.

The 2022-2023 Season will include six performances in the Hamilton Performing Arts Center. We will also be presenting at least two concerts at the Mary Stuart Rogers Performing Arts Center at Victor Schools in addition to the series in Hamilton.

Season tickets sales are now open. The deadline for last year's season subscribers to renew seats for this new season is August 22, 2022. All single tickets for all shows then will be available for sale to the general public starting September 7, 2022. We recommend new season subscriber purchase by September 6, 2022 for best seat availability.

2022 Additions to our regular season

Iona Fyfe...September 28, 2022, 7pm, at the Mary Stuart Rogers Performing Arts Center in Victor Schools. Tickets are now on sale. This concert is in partnership with the Bitterroot Celtic Society. Aberdeenshire Folksinger, Iona Fyfe, has become one of Scotland's finest singers, rooted deeply in the singing traditions of the North East of Scotland. In 2021, she became the first singer to win the coveted title of Musician of the Year at the MG ALBA Scots Trad Music Awards. Iona is a fierce advocate for the official recognition of the Scots Language, leading a successful campaign to pressure Spotify into recognizing Scots and add it to its list of languages. Honoured at the Scots Language Awards with the title of Speaker of the Year in 2021, Iona performs both folk and pop songs in the Scots language, remaining true to her rooting in tradition. Iona has featured in several publications including The Sunday Post, The Financial Times, The Wall Street Journal and The Times. She won the title of Scots Singer of the Year at the MG ALBA Scots Trad Music Awards in 2018 and was described as "one of the best Scotland has to offer."

Philip Aaberg...December 16 & 17, 2022, 8pm at the Mary Stuart Rogers Performing Arts Center in Victor Schools. Tickets go on sale September 7, 2022. Philip Aaberg, of Chester, MT, is a Grammy and Emmy nominated composer known worldwide for his compositions that evoke the spaciousness and beauty of the Western landscape. His musical career is as diverse and expansive as the Montana landscape he calls home. After graduating from Harvard, Aaberg later moved to San Francisco, CA, to make pop and rock records. He played solo and in small combos in San Francisco blues clubs until joining the Elvin Bishop Group in 1973. He first appeared on the national scene as keyboardist with The Elvin Bishop Band. He toured with the band for four years and played on several of their albums. Aaberg later toured with Peter Gabriel and recorded with the Doobie Brothers, Kenny Rogers and Vince Gill. He began composing his own music seriously in 1985. Shortly after, he signed with Windham Hill Record
